

Empowering Education: Ghodawat Consumer Limited 'Future First' Revamps Kumar Vidya Mandir

Maharashtra 5th March, 2025 – Reinforcing its commitment to Education and Community development, Ghodawat Consumer Limited (GCL), the FMCG arm of the Sanjay Ghodawat Group, has successfully upgraded the educational infrastructure at Kumar Vidya Mandir, Tamdalge, under its flagship CSR initiative, 'Future First.' Focused on improving education and healthcare facilities, the initiative is designed to create a better learning environment for students, ensuring their holistic development and well-being.

The initiative introduced key infrastructural improvements, including upgraded desks and chairs, improved sanitation facilities, and enhanced cooling systems, fostering a comfortable and safe educational space. Additionally, new road safety measures were implemented to ensure the security of students, promoting better attendance and deeper community engagement. Recently, a handover ceremony was held to mark the completion of these significant enhancements, carried out with the support of the Tamdalge Gram Panchayat.

Salloni Ghodawat, CEO, Ghodawat Consumer Limited (GCL), emphasized the company's dedication to social responsibility, stating, "At GCL, we are committed to making a real difference in communities through our CSR efforts. The 'Future First' program prioritizes education and healthcare to provide students with a conducive environment for learning and growth. Supporting Kumar Vidya Mandir aligns with our vision of fostering quality education, and we will continue investing in such impactful initiatives. Proper infrastructure in education and healthcare plays a crucial role in national progress, and through our contributions, we aim to create lasting positive changes benefiting students, teachers, and society at large."

Beyond Kumar Vidya Mandir, GCL remains committed to expanding its impact on education in the region. Apart from this, Smt. Gangabai Khivraj Ghodawat MahaVidyalaya, Jaysingpur has played a pivotal role in shaping young minds by educating over 5,000 girls from 52 villages since 1995. In addition, GCL's commitment to inclusive education is evident through its long-standing support for the 'Lions Clubs Visually Disabled School' in Miraj, where it manages daily operations and has donated the school building, ensuring a dedicated space for specialized education.

By focusing on accessible and improved learning environments, Ghodawat Consumer Limited continues to drive long-term positive change by Enhancing Lives Globally.
